Castle of the Soul Concert:

A Contemplative Prayer Experience

Liam Lawton, Tony Alonso, Chris de Silva

Saturday, March 17, 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm

Take this opportunity in a very busy world and listen to people, like Teresa of Avila, who invite us to discover the hiding place of God. It is an invitation to journey to the place where we learn to converse with God and experience a new relationship in trust, peace and security - the beginning of a new lifelong journey. A labyrinth experience will be offered on Saturday afternoon with Tammy Ichinotsubo-Ezzi, PhD. *The Castle of the Soul concert is included as part of this retreat:

Castle of the Soul Concert: A Contemplative Prayer Experience

Sat. March 17, 7:30pm-9:00pm Liam Lawton, Tony Alonso, Chris de Silva

An integral part of the weekend retreat, the concert will be held at Holy Trinity in San Pedro to accommodate all who wish to hear this amazing performance. Fr. Liam is an amazing singer and award-winning composer. He is also a priest of the Diocese of Kildare & Leighlin in Ireland and the Director of Music in his Diocese. Tony Alonso, Director of Liturgical Music at Loyola Marymount University, has shared his musical gifts and liturgical knowledge at conferences across the United States, Canada and Europe. Chris de Silva offers his gift of music to many at the annual RECongress in Anaheim. He is the Director of Music & Liturgy at St. Brendan Church in Hancock Park. All of our presenters are published composers with GIA Music with many popular CDs published to date. Their music is enjoyed throughout the world.
